ATTORNEY PLANNING MEETING REPORT

Case No. 2:24-cv-00344-RJS

Chief Judge Robert J. Shelby

Magistrate Judge Daphne A. Oberg

Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 1, 16, and 26 and the Court's Order to Proposed Schedule (ECF No. 14), the parties jointly submit the following Attorney Planning Meeting Report.

1. PRELIMINARY MATTERS

a.	Claims and Defenses: (describe the nature and basis of claims and any affirmative defenses) Plaintiffs' Position: This is a consumer privacy class action. Plaintiffs allege that Defendant Sundance Holdings Group, LLC ("Sundance"), a Utah corporation, violated Utah's Notice of Intent to Sell Nonpublic Personal Information Act, Utah Code § 13-37 ("the NISNPIA") by selling, renting, or otherwise disclosing for compensation Plaintiffs' nonpublic personal information, obtained as the result of their purchases of products from Sundance, to third parties. Plaintiffs bring the case on behalf of a putative class defined as "all persons in the United States who, at any point during the applicable statutory period, had their Private Purchase Information [(as defined in the operative complaint)], obtained by Defendant on or after January 1, 2004 as a result of a consumer transaction, disclosed to third parties by Sundance." Plaintiffs seek, inter alia, statutory damages of $500.00 per violation to each Plaintiff and Class member pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 13-37-203(2)(a). Defendant's Position: Defendant maintains that the NISNPIA expressly prohibits class actions, that its class action bar applies in federal court, and that without a class Plaintiffs cannot satisfy the amount-in-controversy requirement for federal jurisdiction. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d). Defendant further claims that

	Plaintiffs have waived any claim under NISNPIA and consented to the disclosure of their information by, inter alia, making multiple purchases from Sundance, including purchases after commencing this action. Defendant further disputes and denies all of Plaintiffs' claims, including its allegations pertaining to class certification.
b.	Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f)(1) Conference: (date the conference was held)	January 2, 2025
c.	Participants: (include the name of the party and attorney, if applicable) Frank S. Hedin, counsel for Plaintiffs; and Liz C. Rinehart and Jordan Cameron, counsel for Defendant
d.	Fed. R. Civ. P 26(a)(1) Initial Disclosures: (the parties have exchanged initial disclosures or will exchange no later than the date provided)	01/31/2025
e.	Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b)(2)(E), the parties agree to receive all items required to be served under Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(a) by the court's electronic-filing system or email transmission. Electronic service constitutes notice and service as required by those rules. The right to service by USPS mail is waived. The following email addresses must be included on any email sent to effectuate electronic service: For Plaintiff: fhedin@hedinllp.com; ejackson@hedinllp.com; earribas@hedinllp.com	Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	No <input type="checkbox"/>

		For Defendant: jordan@cameronringwood.com ; filing@cameronringwood.com ; lcrinehart@venable.com ; ajvitti@venable.com ; tbrandles@venable.com

2. PROTECTIVE ORDER

a.		The parties anticipate the case will involve the disclosure of information, documents, or other materials that will be designated as confidential.	Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	No <input type="checkbox"/>
b.		The parties anticipate that the case will involve the disclosure of information, documents, or other materials that will be designated as CONFIDENTIAL. Good cause exists for the court to enter the court's Standard Protective Order (SPO) under DUCivR 26-2, including because it is expected the documents disclosed may contain sensitive financial information of the parties, such as financial statements and payroll records.

3. DISCOVERY PLAN

a.		Discovery Plan : The parties agree to the following discovery plan. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> If the parties disagree, clearly indicate the disagreement in the space below: 	Yes <input type="checkbox"/>	No <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

		<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. whether Sundance is a “commercial entity” within the meaning of the NISNPIA; 2. whether Plaintiffs and the class members entered into “consumer transactions” with Sundance within the meaning of NISNPIA; 3. whether Sundance provided the notice required by the NISNPIA to Plaintiffs and Class members before they entered into consumer transactions with Sundance; 4. whether Sundance obtained Plaintiffs’ and Class members’ Private Purchase Information (as that term is defined in the Complaint) as a result of consumer transactions, and whether such information constitutes “nonpublic personal information” within the meaning of the NISNPIA; 5. whether Sundance disclosed Plaintiffs’ and Class members’ Private Purchase Information to a third party; 6. whether Sundance’s disclosures of Plaintiffs’ and the Class’s Private Purchase Information to third parties violated the NISNPIA; 7. the number of violations of the NISNPIA, number of class members, and information related to the class members and their purchases; and 8. whether the requirements of Rule 23 are satisfied so as to warrant certification of the proposed Class. Defendant’s Position: Discovery will be needed on at least the following subjects: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Whether Plaintiffs are bona fide consumers or rather professional plaintiffs; 2. Plaintiffs’ pre-litigation demand history and litigation history involving consumer claims and class actions;

		3. Plaintiffs' Internet search history in the months before and after the dates of their alleged transactions with Defendant; 4. Plaintiffs' consumer history during the relevant time-period for this litigation; 5. Plaintiffs' disclosure of "non-public personal information"; 6. Plaintiffs' social media, including all removed content, during the relevant time-period for this litigation; 7. Third-party discovery regarding the intent of the class action prohibition in the NISNPIA; 8. Whether the requirements of Rule 23 are satisfied so as to warrant certification of the proposed Class.
c.		Discovery Phases: Will discovery be conducted in phases? If so, please explain. No.
d.		Electronically Stored Information: (describe how the parties will handle discovery of electronically stored information) Electronically stored materials shall be produced in native format and, where feasible, with image file, text file and attendant load files for use with an e-discovery software. Nothing herein shall limit a responding party's right to object to the production of any electronically stored materials sought by a requesting party. If the circumstances warrant, the parties agree to cooperate to identify search terms to be used by a responding party to search for electronically stored materials sought by a requesting party.
